Would that they who now try us were converted and tri - ed with us: yet, though they continue to try us, let us not hate them: for we know not whether any of them will continue to the end in his e - vil ways. And mostly, when thou thinkest thyself to be hating thine enemy, thou hatest thy brother, and know - est it not.
The devil and his angels are shown to us in Scripture as doomed to e - ter - nal fire.
Their amendment alone is hopeless, against whom we wage a sec - ret strife:
for which strife the Apostle arms us, saying; We wrestle not against flesh and blood:
that is, not against men, whom we see, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world. Lest that by saying, the world, ye should think perhaps that devils are rulers of heaven and earth, he says; Of the darkness of this world. He says, of the world, that is, the lovers of the world: Of the world, that is, the impious and wick - ed: Of the world, that is, of which the Gospel saith; And the world knew him not.
